

Project Bamiléké

Table of Contents

Part 1

Acknowledgements

Testimony

Preface

Presentation of Project Bamiléké

Thesis of Project Bamiléké

Background

Goals and difficulties of Project Bamiléké

Criteria used in the choice of the Ex-Mifi region

Research objectives for the Ex-Mifi

Research outline

Research Methodologies

Introduction to the Bamiléké Region

The Bamiléké region in brief

History and origin of the Bamiléké

Origin of the Bamiléké

History of the Bamiléké ancestors: the Tikar

History of recent migrations

The Harvesting Field

Introduction to Ex-Mifi villages

Demography and Density

Languages, dialects, and sub-dialects of Ex-Mifi villages

Society

Education

Health

Economy

Social anthropology

Spiritual practices among the Bamiléké

Bamiléké system of belief

Conclusions

Picture of the current spiritual, anthropological, economic, social and missionary reality

Using the results of the research

Limits of the project

Anticipated continuation

Appendices

Appendix 1

Reflection on the Hamitic origin and Babylonian heritage of the Bamiléké people

Babylonian heritage of the Bamiléké?

Appendix 2

Various statistical tables on the Bamiléké region

Bibliography

Part 2

Acknowledgements

Testimony

Preface

Presentation of Project Bamiléké

Thesis of Project Bamiléké

Background

Goals and difficulties of Project Bamiléké

Criteria used in the choice of the Ex-Mifi region

Research objectives for the Ex-Mifi

Research outline

Research Methodologies

Sociology

History of the birth and origin of villages in the Ex-Mifi

Disputed common origin of Bayangam, Bahouan and Baham

Bandjoun

Bangou

Baham

Bayangam

Bahouan

Bangang fondji

Bamendjou

Batié

Bafoussam

Common history of Baméka, Bamougoum, Bansa and Bamendjou

Bamougoum

Baméka

Baleng

Badenkop

Bangam

Bandrefam

Bapa

Badeng

Bapi

Batoufam

Political and spiritual organization in Bamiléké land

Political organization (visible)

The chief or the king

Transfer of power in the chiefdom

The role of Notables

The role of the queen mother

Traditional associations or societies

Secret societies

The role of chiefs of clans or families

Family among the Bamiléké

The decline of authority in the land of Bamiléké

Spiritual organization

At the level of the chiefdom

At the level of secret societies

At the level of clans or families

Several traditional Bamiléké institutions

- The Bamiléké calendar
- Traditional education
- Traditional judicial institutions
- Marriage
- Funerals
- Succession
- Values and characteristics of Bamiléké society
 - Peace and unity
 - Creativity in art and music
 - Mobilization of society
 - Murder and suicide
 - Sexual morality, adultery and incest
 - Attitude towards women
 - Divorce and polygamy
 - Eldest rights and respect for superiors
 - Honor towards one's parents
 - Solidarity
 - Education
 - Savings
 - Honesty
 - Bamiléké dynamism or the worship of effort and work
 - Bamiléké and private property
 - Bamiléké emigration is a historical and current phenomenon
 - Spirit of the hunter and spirit of cunning and of conquest among the Bamiléké
- Religion and traditions
 - The reality of a traditional Bamiléké religion
 - Consequences of culture or traditions on the social and spiritual life of the Bamiléké
 - Consequences on personality
 - Consequences on the administration of goods and on the economy
 - Consequences of the conception of time
 - Consequences on the choice of social system
 - Consequences on the Christian life of the Bamiléké
 - Consequences on the development of the village
 - Sources of poverty in Bamiléké land
- Causes of resistance to the Gospel
 - The power of culture and traditions on the Bamiléké
 - The mutation of traditional Bamiléké religion
 - Consequences of the Catholic concept of inculturation
 - The lack of translations of the Gospel in Bamiléké languages
 - The approximate knowledge of the word of God
 - Bamiléké customs, the Old Testament and Judaism
 - The Bamiléké have received a powerless gospel
 - Influence of occult Bamiléké places on the spiritual atmosphere
- Conclusions
 - Picture of the current spiritual, anthropological, economic, social and missionary reality (PART 1)
 - Using the results of the research
 - Limits of the project
 - Anticipated continuation
- Appendices
 - Appendix 1
 - Sem-Sem or the mystical Bankim Lake
- Bibliography

Part 3

Acknowledgements

Testimony

Preface

Presentation of Project Bamiléké

Thesis of Projet Bamiléké

Background

Goals and difficulties of Project Bamiléké

Criteria used in the choice of the Ex-Mifi region

Research objectives for the Ex-Mifi

Research outline

Research Methodologies

The strength of the harvest

Distribution and status of churches and Christian organizations

History of the beginnings of Christianity in Bamiléké villages

Origin of the birth of Christianity in Bamiléké villages

Where are churches located?

Church needs in the Ex-Mifi

Need for evangelical churches?

Typical model of evangelical church gatherings

Growth rate of evangelical churches

Evangelical Churches and Missions

Theological formation of evangelical church leaders

Evangelical missionary works in Bafoussam

Degree of Church preparedness faced with the missionary challenge

Use of the Bible in evangelical churches of the city of Bafoussam

The awakening of Islam

Should the Bible be translated in native Bamiléké tongues?

The cause of failures in the evangelization of the Bamiléké

How to reach the Ghomala?

Current evangelical methods, approaches and strategies

Important themes for the transformation of the Bamiléké

Strategic propositions for effective evangelization of Bamiléké land

Praying effectively for the Bamiléké villages

Conclusions

Determining the status and potential of the Church

Analyzing the strategies and means of attaining them

Using the results of the research

An example of how the Bamiléké project is being used

Limits of the project

Anticipated continuation

Appendices

Appendix 1

Spiritual topography (spiritual mapping) and strategic intercession

Sources of information for spiritual mapping

Appendix 2

Comparison of Bamiléké customs with those of the Jews

Typical questions to find Jewish traces in a people group

Comparisons the Bamiléké make between their customs and those of the Old Testament

Appendix 3

Inculturation and traditional Bamiléké religion

Bibliography